

The Birdie Monk Holsclaw Volunteer of the Year Award

“The Birdie Award” is presented to an individual, group or organization that has provided outstanding volunteer service to the Colorado Council of Genealogical Societies, its member societies or some area of genealogical service in Colorado.

“The Birdie Award” recognizes and thanks living individuals, groups, libraries, archives or other organizations who make significant contributions in the field of genealogy in Colorado.

To nominate an individual, group or organization send a letter listing the following:

- Name of nominee
- Society (if applicable)
- Address
- Email
- Phone
- Fax
- Summarize the accomplishments or contributions of the nominee. Be specific but succinct! (Keep nomination letters to one page if at all possible.)
- Nominated by:
- Phone
- Email

Deadline for nominations is September 1 of each year and will be reviewed by the Birdie Monk Holsclaw Memorial Fund Committee. The award winner will be announced at the October Quarterly Council meeting which is held on the 2nd Saturday. The award will be presented to the winner at his/her home meeting after the CCGS announcement.
