

Joan Grady

Updated 31 July 2020

1000 Dransfeldt Road, Apt. 411
Parker, CO 80134
Home: 7204258695
Email: gradyjb54@gmail.com.

Speaker Bio:

Joan Has a PH.D. from the University of Colorado, an M.A. from Columbia University, an MLA from the University of Denver, a B.A. from Hunter College and a Certificate in Family History Research, British Option from Brigham Young University

. She has been a teacher, principal, and superintendent in public and private education. She has taught several courses in the Adult Education division of Arapahoe Community College in Colorado. She presently consults in the educational field in addition to her work as speaker, genealogist and destination lecturer. Her articles have appeared in a variety of magazines. She has given presentations on many occasions to local and national groups.

AV / Equipment: Projector, screen and computer. I will bring a USB flash drive with Powerpoint on it.

Fee: $65 for 1 hour presentation

Travel Restrictions: None during daytime; metro area only, at night. Group needs to provide transportation or pay the cost of Uber transportation.

Presentations:

- Introduction to Genealogy
- Search, Search, Search: Records that are often Overlooked.
- Keeping Track of Information on the Census and the Internet
- Basic British Genealogy
- Homestead Records
- Bounty Land Grants
- Naturalization Records
- Tips for Beginning Genealogists
- Hawaii and the Royal Family - History, Family History
- A Fully Documented Life - Family History
- A method of tracking a Family for generations through the Census-
- Irish Genealogy
- Evidence, Criteria and Accuracy
- Pirates of the Caribbean
- Hummel Figurines
- Panama Canal
- Maine LightHouses
- Vikings
- A Second Sphinx?
- Costa Rica
- Iceland
- St. Patrick and the History of the Celts