

Mark F. Rabideau

Updated 6 March 2025
711 Nob Hill Trail
Franktown, CO USA - 80116-8717
Home: 303-660-9400
Fax: 303-660-9217
E-Mail: Genealogy@eirenicon.org
Website <http://many-roads.com>

Credentials:

- see: <https://cocouncil.org/sbDocs/MarkRabideauSpeakerDocument.pdf>

AV / Equipment: Screen, projector, cordless or clip-on microphone, Will provide own laptop & or Zoom/ Skype link-up for remote presentations

Fee:

- Remote Presentations: $100 per 1 hour presentation session (for remote presentations)
- In-person Presentations: (TBD post-pandemic)
- o Travel Costs (apply only for in-person presentations): see: <http://www.many-roads.com/contact/speaker-specifics/>

Webinars/ Remote Presentations:

- Available (Preferred during the pandemic).
- Society must provide high-speed internet and platform access such as Zoom, Skype, or GoToMeeting.

NOTE: I generally prefer to customize/ develop presentation materials targeted to specific audience interest(s) and need(s).*

Typical Presentation Topics:

- German- Prussian Research
- East & West Prussia, Pomerania, Silesia: pre-1945 former Eastern German Provinces, now Poland, Kaliningrad (Russia), Lithuania
- Shoah (Holocaust) Jewish Research
- Germans from Russia / Black Sea
- Prussian Mennonites
- Swiss-Alsatian Mennonites-Amish
- New France (Quebec, Northern New York & New England)
- Upstate New York & New England
- Genealogy Research Technologies, Websites, etc.

Misc. Services:

I am willing to lead, conduct Society supported German, Prussian, Jewish, Mennonite workshops using Zoom. These sessions are geared to assisting society members conduct more effective genealogy research. (Charges to be arranged based upon number and duration of sessions.)